Jewelry, Art & Antiques

One of the most anticipated events of the season, the Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show will return to the Palm Beach County Convention Center for its eighth year on Presidents' Day weekend, February 18-22. With the works of over 180 international dealers to choose from, the 2011 show will boast an enviable selection of art, antiques and jewelry and will draw tens of thousands of private collectors, museum curators, investors and interior designers who are eager to view and purchase some of the most unique and coveted treasures in the world.

Items at the show will span every genre, including fine art, antique and estate jewelry, furniture, porcelain, Asian art, American and European silver, glass, textiles, sculpture and more, ranging from the antiquities to the 20th century. Guests will have access to aisle after aisle of extraordinary collections offered by returning exhibitors such as Arader Galleries, Betteridge Jewelers, Camilla Dietz Bergeron, Danish Silver, Erik Thomsen Asian Art, French Country UK, Gavin Spanierman, Hancocks, Hyland Granby Antiques, Lillian Nassau, M.S. Rau Antiques, Macklowe Gallery, Mark J. West, Michael Pashby Antiques, T.K. Asian Antiquities and Vallejo Gallery and new exhibitors such as Brock & Co., Drucker Antiques, Fred Leighton and Jerald Melberg Gallery.

A "must-see" for guests at this year's event will be the impressive selection of estate, period and vintage jewelry that will be on display.

Further enhancing the show, an exclusive, invitation-only Opening Night Private Preview Party benefiting the Historical Society of Palm Beach County will kick off the show on Friday, February 18, and a daily educational lecture series will feature industry experts offering their extensive knowledge on a variety of captivating topics.

Free and open to the public, the lectures will be headlined by industry
